Aix-la-Chapelle. The Minster. The Minster is a building of different dates and architectural styles. Charlemagne built in 796—804 the noble Byzantine Octagon 104ft high; the choir, begun 1353 and completed in 1413, is Gothic; the Chapels are 14th and 15th century, and the bronze doors of the west entrance were cast about 804. The great gilded candelabrum was presented by Frederick Barbarossa (1165) and there are many other treasures, including Charlemagne's marble throne.
